WINTER SUNSHINE WEEKEND IN CYPRUS

Chill out at the recently renovated and upgraded Palm Beach Hotel & Bungalows

WINTER temperatures in Cyprus average around 66 degrees and this picturesque island at the cross roads of Europe and Africa is less than a five hour flight from the UK, making it a ideal place to escape the plummeting UK temperatures.

Easily reached for a weekend of relaxation and the chance to top up the tan pre or post Christmas, the recently renovated Palm Beach Hotel & Bungalows near Larnaka is the perfect retreat to chill out for a few days.

This long established and popular hotel with its exotic spacious gardens, situated on the Mediterranean coastline, now offers five star facilities and services including the Wellness Centre, where guests can recharge their batteries with a range of specialised massages and holistic therapies, plus sauna, Jacuzzi and steam bath.

For the energetic there are tennis and squash courts, a fully equipped gym, plus an indoor heated swimming pool. There is also the opportunity to go horse riding, just 6km from the hotel.

The hotel is also ideally situated for hiring a car and exploring the entire island, including the stunning Troodos Mountains, where you can also ski in the winter, and the tiny mountain villages where you will witness Cypriot life as it has carried on for centuries.

Known as the 'island of love' Cypriot culture is steeped in mythology and visitors will be enchanted by exploring ancient sights on the island such as the Temple of Apollo and Currium.

Larnaka also has its own well preserved archaeological sites, churches, mosques, museums and art galleries worth visiting, check them out by visiting www.larnakaregion.com

A four night weekend break costs from £420 per room for a seaview room for two adults including breakfast in November. International flights are NOT included in the price.
